Official Opening

On the 22nd of January, Rowan Park had a very special day as we officially opened and welcomed our first new resident and her family. Since then, we have continued to grow the Rowan Park family and have welcomed a number of new residents. A very warm welcome to you all!

Intergenerational

One of life's magical experiences is watching generations come together, listen, to spend some time together with our residents to enjoy stories.

learn and laugh. Rowan Park recently welcomed 15 children from St. Vigors School

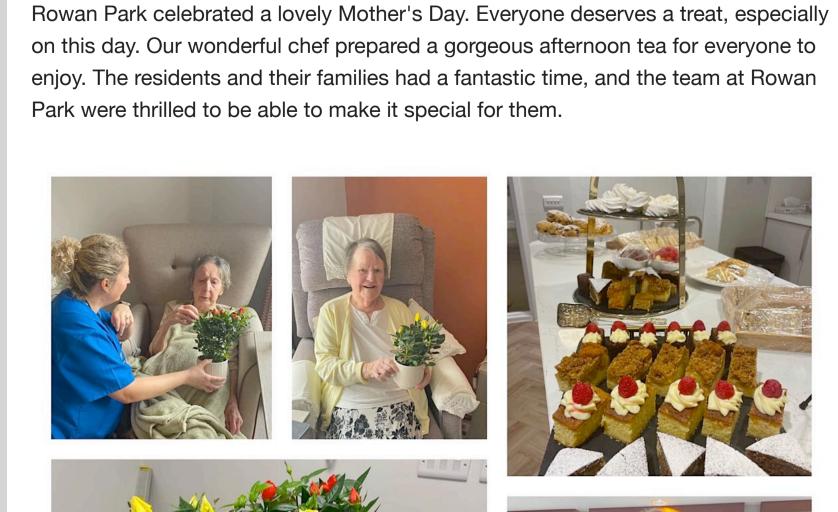

During their time together, a lot of excitement and laughter was shared between the children and residents. The beautiful photos that were taken during the day captured the moments perfectly.

Coming Up...

Community engagement is incredibly important to us here at Rowan Park. Our beautiful hair salon needs a name and St. Vigors School provided over 100 names from children aged 6-12 with plenty of options. Now, the residents and relatives will vote on their favourite name before having an official naming ceremony with the lucky winner cutting the ribbon. We look forward to sharing the name soon!
